

Who Is Eligible to Apply?

Michigan's general purpose local units of government (counties, cities, villages, and townships) with populations under 50,000 are eligible to apply for the State of Michigan's CDBG funding. HUD also provides CDBG funds directly to larger metropolitan communities within the state and those communities are not eligible to receive funds under the state's CDBG Program.

The following counties and all of their respective local units of government are ineligible to receive CDBG funds: Macomb, Oakland, and Wayne.

Some local units of government that are within ineligible counties are eligible to receive CDBG funds: Genesee County (Flushing City and Linden are eligible for state's program); Kent County (only Cedar Springs City is eligible for state's program); and the following local units of government within Washtenaw County are also ineligible for the state's program: Ann Arbor, Township of Ann Arbor, Bridgewater Township, Northfield Township, Pittsfield Township, Salem Township, and Superior Township.

The following Michigan cities are not eligible to directly apply or receive state CDBG funds, but an eligible county may apply for state CDBG funds for projects located in these cities: Battle Creek, Bay City, Benton Harbor, East Lansing, Holland, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Midland, Monroe, Muskegon, Muskegon Heights, Niles, Norton Shores, Portage, Port Huron, and Saginaw.
